SELLING POINTS

- From a sixty-something woman who's found love to a woman on the run with her nephew, and a woman who's made a deal with the devil in exchange for her dreams.
- 13 stories of dark and disturbing tales about women with revenge on their minds.
- Central theme of each story is women with a fiery streak and a thirst for vengeance.
- Author of Eden Abandoned and Barefoot and Pregnant.
- Contributors: Robin McLean, Anil Menon, Catherine McNamara, Shobha Tharoor Srinivasan and others.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Be very afraid.

Thirteen stories of revenge. These women are mad as hell, bloodthirsty. And they are coming for you.

A sixty-something woman finds unexpected love; another flees with her nephew; a writer strikes a deal with the devil – each story bares its fangs. Startling, sinister and seductive, these women go after those who wronged them with a ferocious cunning, sometimes underhanded, sometimes operatic. A sisterhood of betrayed wives, beheaded princesses, the belittled and gaslighted...

Hell Hath No Fury illuminates the electrifying space between love and hate.

ABOUT THE BOOK

RACE AGAINST THE DINGDIAL WITH THE INTREPID TARANAUTS IN EIGHT EXCITING ADVENTURES!

Mithya's eight worlds – Shyn, Lustr, Sparkl, Glo, Syntilla, Shimr, Glytr and Dazl – were plunged into darkness when the wicked Shaap Azur captured all the 32 stars of the supersun Tara. All seemed lost, until three gifted mithyakins – Taranauts Zarpa, Tufan and Zvala – set out on the perilous quest to bring back light and cheer to Mithya.

Battling danger at every turn – cave-dwelling venompires, raging Kolaverobots, multipronged Shredderheads, the vicious bijlimaach, and more – the Taranauts must locate and crack Shaap Azur's 32 challenges. With the fate of Mithya hanging in the balance, they will need more than their very special talents to succeed.

Can the three superstars learn to work as a team? Can they summon up the loyalty, courage and kindness this daunting mission demands?

Will the Tarasuns shine down on Mithya again?

Chase the stars and find out!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Roopa Pai, a Bengaluru-based writer, columnist and speaker, is one of India's best-known children's authors. Taranauts was her debut children's book series. Many of her books are bestsellers, enjoyed as much by adults as by children. Among them is the award-winning, much-translated The Gita for Children, listed by Amazon India as one of '100 Indian books to read in a lifetime'. Her TEDx talk 'Decoding the Gita: India's Book of Answers' has received over two million views to date. When she isn't writing, Roopa leads heritage walks around her city with BangaloreWalks, a company she co-founded.

SELLING POINTS

- The book encapsulates the history of the enduring and amazing city of Delhi – its inception, growth, destruction, revival and continuation through all the rulers who wielded power from its throne.
- Covers the history of this multifaceted city and highlights its role as a hub of power and politics, education and culture, trade and commerce.
- It's a whistlestop yet fulfilling tour of its array of heritage monuments and gallery of personalities whose memory lives on in the city in many ways.
- Includes the evergreen legends and eventful stories connected with the city.
- Fills a gap as there is no other comprehensive history of Delhi available for young readers.
- Peppered with pen-and-ink illustrations and vintage images.

ABOUT THE BOOK

The adventurous, the ambitious and the brave coveted its throne.

One invader after another crossed the mighty Himalayas to seek his fortune here.

A pivot of power down the ages, it fascinated both settlers and rulers, to become the capital of great empires.

Across centuries, the 'Delhi Triangle' of about 200 square kilometres became the seat of many a powerful monarch, with a different name and location every time: Dillika, Siri, Tughlakabad, Jahanpanah, Ferozabad, Purana Qila and Shahjahanabad. These seven cities gave the historic hub its grand, varied and colourful heritage. Centre of learning and culture, art and architecture, and trade and commerce, it was a megalopolis like no other. In time, New Delhi emerged from the light and shadows of its past to become the eighth city, modern India's centre of government! Among the oldest capital cities in the world, Delhi is a storehouse of legends and lore, history and mysteries, secrets and stories. Every nook and corner, pathway and rock here hides a tale – of triumph and defeat, riches and ruin, builders, sculptors and artists, royalty and rebels, saints and common folk, poets, writers and thinkers – all waiting to be uncovered. Are you ready to embark on an exciting journey of discovery?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Author, editor and freelance journalist, Nita Berry has written short stories, picture and activity books, historical biographies, fiction and non-fiction for children of all ages, winning many awards for her writing, including the Shankar's Medal for Excellence in Writing. She was also part of NCERT's textbook development team.

Always fond of spinning a tale, Nita enjoyed writing from her earliest years. In school and later at college. Living on a ship in the middle of nowhere as the wife of a master mariner, she wrote regularly for newspapers and magazines (including the iconic children's magazine Target). Nita also ran a children's centre spread in a weekly magazine and a bimonthly magazine for mariners' families. Currently, she looks after the publications of the Association of Writers and Illustrators for Children, and has represented India at several international conferences and workshops.

A homegrown Delhiwallah, she now lives with her family in Gurugram, but has not cut the cord with the eternal city. She believes that its chequered heritage will always belong to us all.
